

I am writing to urge you to rule against the proposal that businesses with whom an "established business relationship exists" continue to be precluded along with other parties from calling those numbers registered with the no call list.